TOM AND JERRY.

Take as many eggs as desired; beat the whites to a stiff froth and the yolks until as thin as water, then mix the two together, adding 1½ teaspoonfuls of sugar for each egg; stir and beat the mixture to a stiff batter.

Put two tablespoonfuls in a mug or cup, add one glass of whisky and fill with hot or cold milk, or hot or cold water, mix well; grate a little nutmeg on top.

CHAMPAGNE PUNCH.

Twelve lemons, one pound sugar, one gallon water, strain; add one pint whisky, one pint sherry wine, ½ pint rum, square piece of ice in bowl, maraschino cherries and their juice, and just before serving put in one quart champagne.

EGGNOG.

Separate the white from the yolks of twelve eggs, whip them separately—the whites until very stiff, the yolks until very thin—put the yolks in a large bowl, add one pound sugar, stirring constantly to prevent sugar from lumping; one pint whisky, three tablespoonfuls rum, three quarts rich milk. While stirring put in half an ounce of nutmeg. If not strong enough to suit add more whisky, then put the whites on top. When serving, cut off a small quantity of white and put on top of glass with a dash of nutmeg.

CLARET PUNCH.

Six lemons, one-half pound sugar, one quart water, strain; four quarts claret wine, quarter pint rum or one half pint whisky; Square piece ice in bowl, sliced oranges and pineapple.
